MOUNTAIN TOURS

Moderately difficult mountain tours.

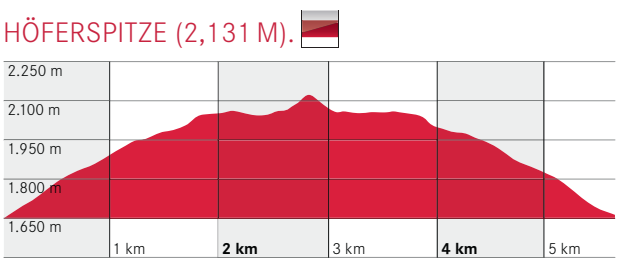

A beautiful mountain tour of medium difficulty for the entire family with a fantastic view of Warth and the surrounding peaks.

Description: ascent with the Steffisalp-Express – hiking trail in the direction of the Wartherhorn – at the Wartherhorn saddle keep left toward the summit – return the same way

TIP: guided sunrise hikes according to the weekly schedule
Break options: Punschlütte, Hochalphütte

Distance 3 km | 1 hour to summit | ↑ 358 m | ↓ 358 m

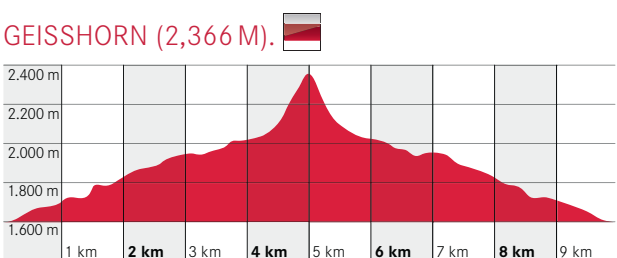

Medium-difficulty mountain tour over an exposed ridge with lovely views. Very diverse floral vegetation in June and July! Sure-footedness and a head for heights are required.

Description: start at the Hochtannbergpass – follow the “Höferspitze” hiking trail – at the zig-zag the path runs up through the pines – the path leads to the ridge via rambling hills – the path takes you up and down from the ridge to the summit – return the same way or take a detour to Schröcken-Nesslegg

TIP: guided sunset hikes according to the weekly schedule
Break options: Widdersteinhütte, Hotel Adler, Restaurant/Bar Holzschopf

Distance 5.7 km | 3h total time | ↑ 459 m | ↓ 459 m

A stunning hike through fairy-tale terrain and a moderately difficult but panoramic hiking trail to the summit of the Geißhorn.

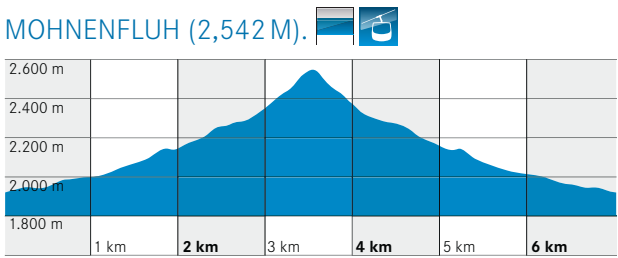

Description: start at Holzplatz (between Hotel Jägeralpe and Hotel Adler) in Hochkrumbach – the trail leads over the so-called Tschirgen in the direction of the Hirschgehren alp – as soon as you have crossed the first stream, veer left onto the trail that leads steeply upward – follow this path in the direction of the Koblatlhütte/Koblatpass – here turn left toward the Geißhorn and follow the signage to the summit – return the same way

Break options: Hotel Jägeralpe

Distance 10 km | about 4.5 h total time | ↑ 749 m | ↓ 749 m

Challenging mountain tours.

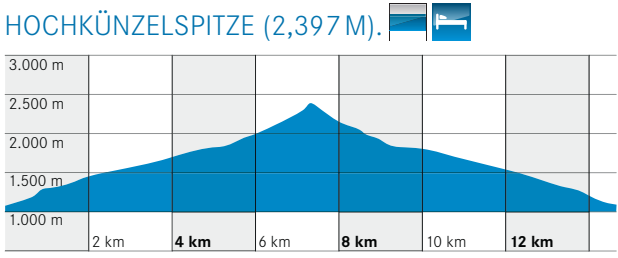

Mountain tour with many vistas and a fantastic panorama at the summit. If you're lucky, you'll spot ibex on the way up!

Description: ascent via Oberlechbahn and Petersbodenbahn – from the mountain station the path continually winds upward through the “gypsum holes” (“Gipslöcher”) nature reserve, past the Kriegeralpe – follow the signposts toward Mohrensattel and continue on the gravel path to the summit – return the same way or turn right at the Mohrensattel to the Butzenssee lake and continue via the Jägersteig to Schröcken (highly recommended, sure-footedness required)

TIP: On the descent, cool off in the turquoise-blue Butzenssee lake.
Break options: Kriegeralpe, restaurants in Oberlech & Schröcken

Distance 7 km | 3.5h total time | ↑ 618 m | ↓ 618 m

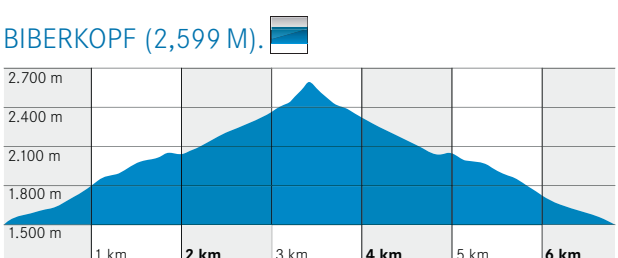

Not very technically challenging, but you must be sure-footed and have a head for heights. A beautiful panorama over the entire Bregenzerwald area awaits you at the top.

Description: Landsteg bus stop close to Schröcken – take the agricultural road toward the Schadona pass – at the pass, turn right toward the summit – return the same way

Break options: Biberacher Hütte

Distance 14.7 km | 6h total time | ↑ 1,412 m | ↓ 1,412 m

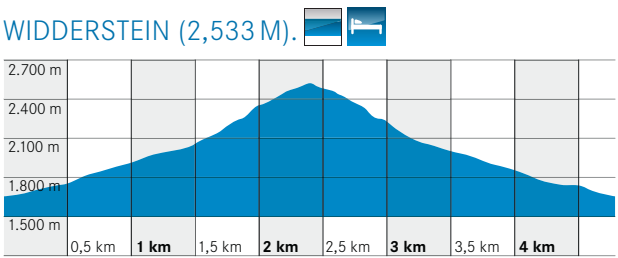

Exciting, challenging mountain tour on the striking border summit of the region with rope-secured climbing routes and a fantastic panorama.

Description: from Warth-Lechleiten at the Haus Schrofenswies holiday apartments, follow the southern path toward Biberkopf – the path leads rather steeply through pine-studded terrain to an old hut – continue up to the Hundskopfalpe – via the steep grassy slopes to the entrance to the crag – rope-secured in some places, the path is challenging toward the summit (sure-footedness required) – return the same way

Break options: Holzgauerhaus in Lechleiten

Distance 6.8 km | 5h total time | ↑ 1,078 m | ↓ 1,078 m

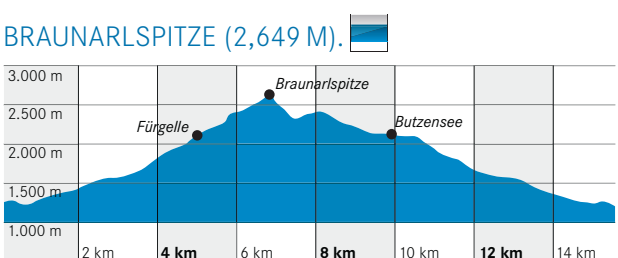

Challenging mountain tour via a somewhat rocky path to the famous peak.

Description: from the Hochtannbergpass toward the Widderstein hut – follow the path toward the Widderstein – note the signposted markings along the ascent path! – return the same way

TIP: Ascent via the east ridge (Ostgrat) or via one of the many tours offering unique alpine climbing experiences (only for experienced mountaineers!) We recommend wearing a helmet.

Break options: Widdersteinhütte, Hotel Adler

Distance 4.8 km | 4 – 4.5 h total time | ↑ 853 m | ↓ 853 m

A long, and therefore also challenging, mountain tour to the highest mountain in the Bregenzerwald – the Braunarlspitze.

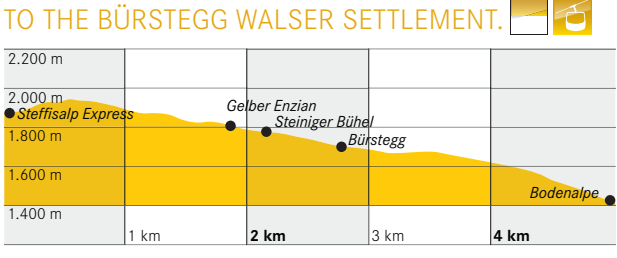

Description: from Schröcken-Heimboden follow the agricultural road toward Alpe Felle – continue via the mountain hiking trail to Fürggelle – an alpine track leads through rocky terrain, roped up in some places, to the summit (you must be sure-footed!) – descent to the south toward the Butzenssee lake – back via the Jägersteig to Alpe Felle and return to Schröcken

TIP: Dive in to the cooling Butzenssee on hot summer days!
Break options: Gasthof Tannberg, Dorfstube, Berghaus Schröcken

Distance 15.5 km | 8h total time | ↑ 1,529 m | ↓ 1,558 m

HIKES

Easy hikes.

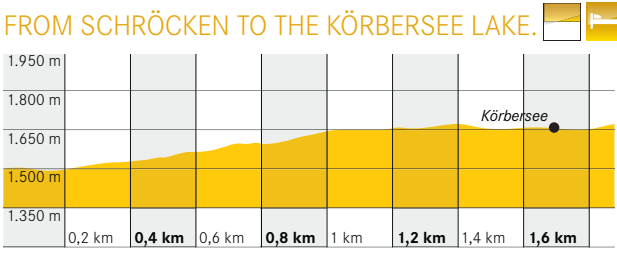

By taking the Steffisalp-Express, you arrive directly at the starting point of this hike, during which you will learn the history of the formerly inhabited, highest Walser settlement, Bürstegg.

Description: ascent with the Steffisalp-Express – hiking trail toward the Wannenkopf – then turn right toward Bürstegg and follow the trail down to the Walser settlement – the trail leads further via the Schöneberg in the direction of the Bodenalpe – from there, return by bus

Break options: Restaurant Bodenalpe, Restaurants in Warth

Distance 5 km | 2 - 2.5 h total time | ↑ 65 m | ↓ 522 m

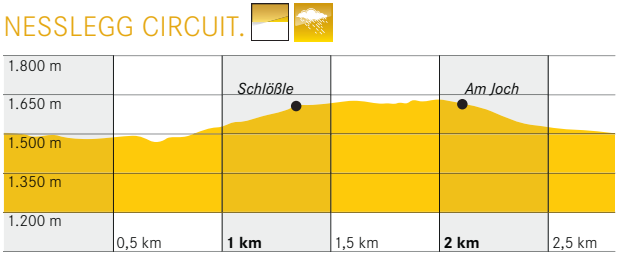

Beautiful hike to the Körbersee with panoramic views of the village of Schröcken.

Description: start in Schröcken-Nesslegg – across from the Restaurant/Bar Holzschopf, the path leads over a stream – follow this trail (through the avalanche barriers) to the Körbersee – return the same way

Break options: Berghotel Körbersee, Restaurant/Bar Holzschopf

Distance 1.9 km | 1.5 h total time | ↑ 176 m | ↓ 12 m

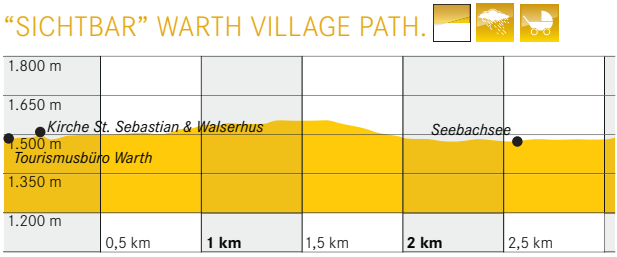

Perfect little tour with beautiful views of the surrounding mountains.

Description: from the Alpengibek bus stop in Schröcken-Nesslegg follow the access road toward Schmitte – after the Litzetobel turn right toward “Schlüssel” – continue east to the “loch” viewpoint – follow the trail down and along the main street back to the starting point

Break options: Restaurant/Bar Holzschopf

Distance 2.8 km | 1 h total time | ↑ 151 m | ↓ 151 m

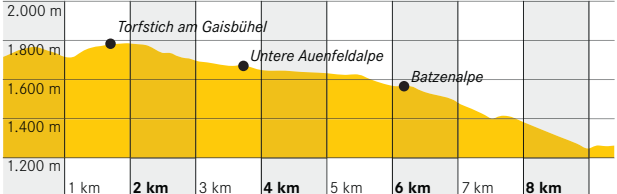

Lovely village path with fantastic views of the village. There are eight “Sichtbar” panels along the path. On them are views from the past, oriented so you can compare them to what you see today.

Description: start from the village centre toward the church – continue to the Steffisalp-Express valley station – to the right of the Hotel Steffisalp, a path leads up and branches into the agricultural road – follow this path to the Wollegg area – then turn left and follow the path above the village back to Warth – take a right at the tourist office toward Wälder Metzge and to the Seebachsee lake

TIP: Cool off in the Seebachsee lake
Break options: Restaurants in Warth

THROUGH THE PICTURESQUE AUENFELD TO SCHRÖCKEN.

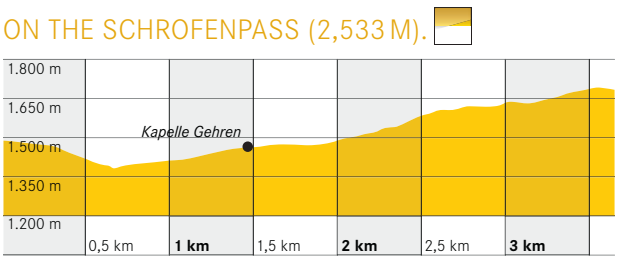

The Auenfeld area is characterized by immense wetland meadows and marshes, flower strewn valley floors and softly rolling hills – a true feast for the eyes!

Description: take the bus to Lech – from Oberlech-Schlössle (optional ascent with the Oberlech gondola possible) via alpine roads and footpaths to the Gaisbüchelalpe – continue toward the Auenfeld saddle – turn left and continue through the Auenfeld area toward Batzenalpe (a visit to the “Uf'm Tannberg” alpine museum is highly recommended) – continue toward Schröcken – at the next fork in the path take a left toward the Alpe Felle – cross the Bregenzerach river and admire the impressive moulin – take the supply road to Schröcken

TIP: Visit the “Uf'm Tannberg” alpine museum to get a glimpse of earlier mountain farming life.
Break options: Restaurants in Schröcken, Auenfelder Hütte (a little bit off the path)

Distance 9.4 km | 3 - 3.5 h total time | ↑ 148 m | ↓ 618 m

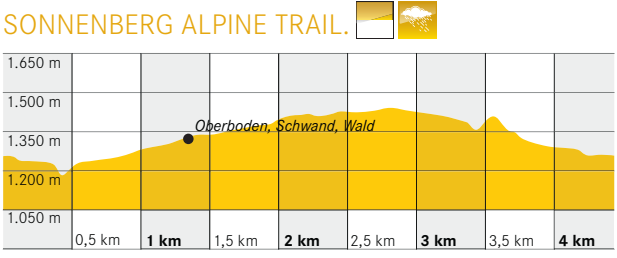

Hiking a former mule track that served for the exchange of goods between Tannberg and Southern Germany for centuries. The hike leads through a fairy-tale landscape in the border region between Austria and Germany.

Description: hike from Warth to Gehren – after the chapel in Gehren there is a small woodland in a tight left curve, pass it on the right – directly after that the path branches off to the left and constantly ascends – follow the “Schröpfenspass” sign-age – return the same way

Break options: Gehrnerhof

Distance 3.6 km | 2 - 2.5 h total time | ↑ 306 m | ↓ 108 m

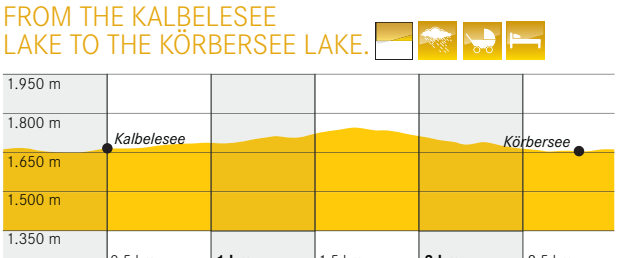

Sunny hike around Schröcken with impressive panoramic views of the village and the mountains.

Description: from Gasthof Tannberg, the path leads behind the inn toward Stutz – follow the road and after the bridge veer right to the Oberboden area – continue to the forested tract – at the fork take the right branch toward Schmitte – follow the path to Schmitte area and descent to the main road to the kiosk – here follow the main road uphill until the hiking trail branches off to the right after the first bridge – follow the trail downhill to the starting point

Break options: Gasthof Tannberg, Dorfstube, Berghaus Schröcken

Distance 4.4 km | 1.5 - 2 h total time | ↑ 223 m | ↓ 223 m

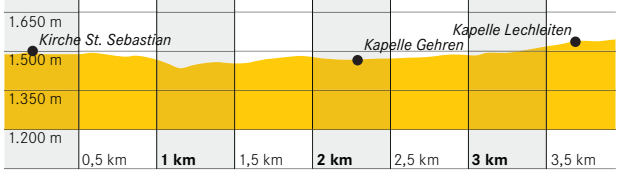

Two little jewels of nature in the direct vicinity of each other, surrounded by the powerful mountain backdrop of Warth-Schröcken. Ideal hike with a push chair.

Description: from the Hochtannbergpass/Salober past the Kalbeesee lake – take the leisurely footpath via the softly rolling hills toward the Körbersee lake – return the same way

TIP: Hire a row boat and go out on the Körbersee lake!
Break options: Berghotel Körbersee

Distance 3 km | 1.5 - 2 h total time | ↑ 106 m | ↓ 103 m

SUNNY TRAIL TO GEHREN & LECHLEITEN.

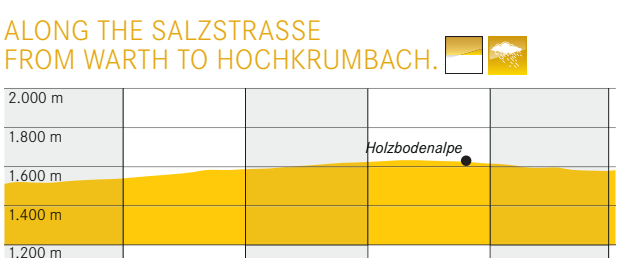

Easy-going, sunny hike to Gehren and Lechleiten because there are many interesting things to discover along the path, such as a natural sulphur spring, the imposing moulin, the “Uf'm Tannberg” alpine museum and the European watershed.

Description: from the village centre of Warth toward the church – follow the inlet road past Haus Anita – turn to the right, then left onto a gravel path that descends into the ravine – cross the suspension bridge and follow the signs to Gehren/Lechleiten – the path ends in a courtyard and the paved road leads through a small wood to Lechleiten – return on the same path

Break options: Gehrnerhof, Holzgauerhaus in Lechleiten, Restaurants in Warth

Distance 4 km | 1.5 h total time | ↑ 114 m | ↓ 60 m

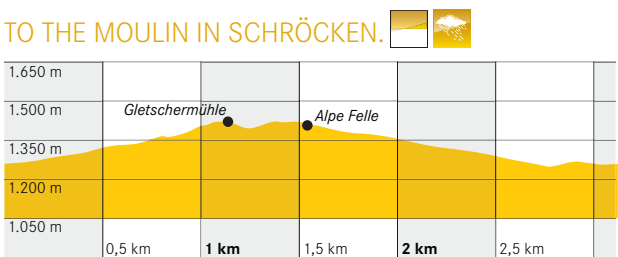

You reach the picturesque hilly landscape of Hochkrumbach on a former smuggler's route.

Description: next to the Hotel Steffisalp, an uphill trail leads steeply upward where the hiking path immediately branches off to the right – over a small wooden bridge, the path leads directly to the Salzstrasse and further on to Hochkrumbach – return the same way or by bus (alternatively: return on the narrow steep trail on the opposite side of the slope/across from the gallery!)

Break options: Restaurants in Warth, Wollegg - Cafe - Bistro, Hotel Jägeralpe, Hotel Adler
