RIEDEL MUSEUM GLASSMAKER MUSEUM GLASS CABINET

The Riedel Museum and the „Glass Cabinet – Retrospective & Ideas Laboratory“ at the Kufstein site show a comprehensive depiction of the work of the Riedel glassmaking family in Kufstein from 1957 onwards, presenting highlights of the family's history and glass art in Bohemia. Some of the items on exhibition originate from the family's own collection. The glass-making museum features an interactive and family-friendly portrayal of the craft and to the physics and chemistry of glass production.

„SINNFONIE“

„SINNFONIE“ SEE, HEAR, FEEL, SMELL, TASTE

The „Sinnfonie“ multimedia show of emotions takes you on a journey through the five sensory perceptions and immerses you in our world of glass and the senses. Seeing, hearing, smelling, feeling, tasting in the harmonious interplay of glass and wine.

THE CRAFT IS PRESENTED

This exhibition area conveys an insight into the history of glass production from its beginnings to the present day, glass production, quality control, as well as the work and life of the glassmakers. The museum also focuses on the social and technical history of Riedel as a company.

A LOOK INTO THE FACTORY

You will get an exclusive insight into the factory from the Glassmaking Museum. Following an informative and interactive introduction to glassmaking and the history of the craft, plus an overview of Riedel's production sites, you will experience up close how glasses are handmade using wooden and metal tools.

FACTORY

Visitors can experience how the talented glassmakers produce a drinking glass or a decanter from a gallery in the heart of the Tyrolean glassworks, which forms part of the tour. Precision and finesse are important, because each piece is one of a kind.

In a nutshell – Riedel Glas Kufstein with its museums, the glass cabinet, the factory, the „Sinnfonie“, the shop and the outlet are both a perfect and interesting excursion destination for adults and children.
