The artistic team
Theatre is a communal effort, the Passion Play in particular. This event is not just about the 2,400 participants from all generations, it is also about the whole team involved in preparing, designing and staging the Play.
This will be Christian Stückl’s fourth appearance as a director of the Oberammergau Passion Play. He will introduce a new generation of actors to the Play and make some fundamental revisions to the script. Stefan Hageneier, who created the breathtaking costumes and stage sets for the 2000 and 2010 Passion Plays will again design stage sets and costumes for 2020. As back in 1990, 2000 and 2010, Markus Zwink will again serve as musical director and compose new musical pieces for 2020.

Passion Play in Oberammergau attracts hundreds of thousands of visitors from the entire world every ten years. The promises of the 43rd Passion Play takes place on 16th May 2020.
More than 2,400 local amateur actors, singers and musicians, which is about half of the population of Oberammergau, will again perform on the stage of the impressive Passion Play Theatre in Oberammergau.
From 16th March 2020, you can buy single tickets.
