IDEAS FOR YOUR VACATION

A warm welcome... to the Alpenwelt Karwendel! Here in the upper valley of the Isar Bavaria pulls out all the stops. Not only will you find a splendid mountainous nature and down to earth customs of the region, but also likeable inhabitants who are deeply rooted with nature and their customs.

Visitors were always very welcome. Be it the Romans, salesmen or pilgrims in former times then nowadays we see more hikers, bikers and families. We from Mittenwald, Krün and Wallgau are more than happy to share the magnificent nature of the Alps, the Bavarian way of life and the culture of our homeland with each and every one of our visitor's. Be our guest and exchange the routine of everyday life against a healthy portion of mountain flair and enjoy your stay in an area where "nature comes from the heart".

The mayor's of the Alpenwelt Karwendel (from the left) Hansjörg Zahler, mayor of Wallgau, Adolf Hornsteiner, mayor of Mittenwald, Thomas Schwarzenberger, mayor of Krün.

Your host's... provide diversity and quality – experience Bavaria hospitable side.

Many of the host's proudly show their very sought after seal of quality, this stands for best service during your stay and everything that makes your stay unforgettable. Certainly we will find the best option for you, be it the 5-star hotel, the cozy private room or the comfortable cozy holiday apartment. But above everything else it will be the people with their Bavarian way of life and their natural sincerity who will make your stay in the Alpenwelt Karwendel an all round pleasant experience.

Wallgau – idyllic in the expansive valley

Enclosed by the impressive mountain panorama of the Karwendel and Wetterstein the snug village lies on a spacious and sun drenched high lying plateau.

Discover the unique unspoilt countryside and experience the warm hospitality and unaltered customs in Wallgau.

Krün – leisurely Bavaria

A picture perfect village with a refreshingly rustic charm in a wide and unique high valley. You can hike and bike on sunny and varied routes past crystal clear lakes and always with a breath taking panorama in front of you. On top of that friendly host's and an entertaining calendar of events all of this together means "purely Oberbayern".

Mittenwald – full of color and sound

The violin making and climatic health resort is a village full of history. Its fascination lies in the artful and traffic calmed area around the center of the village. Here you will find front-paintings as well as lovely shops and boutiques and many facilities for our guests. You will be enthusiastic about the soft and alpine hiking possibilities in Mittenwald which can be reached either with the chairlift or with the Karwendelbahn (cable railway).

Hiking and Mountaineering

Nature of the mountains enchantingly beautiful... True and unspoiled alpine nature with meadows in full blossom, alpine springs with rushing water, sparkling mountain lakes and an ample amount of fresh mountain air – experience your vacation everyday in another way.

There are 350 kilometers of differentiated mountaineering experiences with great panoramic views at your disposal, be it for the lovers of nature, the hikers or families. Either for a comfortable walk across blossoming meadows or a tour to the mountain huts or maybe even a demanding climbing expedition, or walk along one of the geological or nature paths you could also visit one of the gorges. The sunny and extensive high valley of the Alpenwelt Karwendel has already earned a price for best hiking region because of its diversity in the three levels in which one can hike.

Hiking on three levels

- extensive net of footpaths for hiking
- guided hiking and climbing tours
- themed tours
- multiple crystal clear and warm mountain lakes
- Leutasch spirit gorge
- enormous “telescope” center for information about the alpine nature
- chair lift and cable railway
- 9-hole golf course and much more

Cycling and Mountainbiking

Experience the alpine world... Feel the airflow in your face pedal really hard on top of that the view to the Karwendel, Kranzberg and the others it really is an inspiration. Get onto your bike and the joy of life will ride along.

The widely branching net of bike trails of the Alpenwelt Karwendel guides you past gardens of the farmer's small chapels typical with front-painting decorated frontage and to the water meadows of the delightful wild water landscape of the upper Isar valley. For those who haven't got their own bike they will find a practical system of bike rental shops in each town. There you have a choice of different bikes be it a touring bike with child seat or an electric bike or then again maybe a "fully" mountain bike. You should plan in some time for a "Radler" either in a mountain hut or in one of the secluded beer gardens along the way.

Experience the Alpenwelt Karwendel:

- mountain bike areal with 1200 kilometers of trails and more than 30,000 meters altitude differences.
- diversified bike trails for families, appreciative bikers and racing cyclists
- numerous possibilities to swim in a lake or to have a snack.
- bike rental shops
- "Movelo-Region" here you can rent electric bikes
- well documented bike trail net

Culture and Tradition

CULTURE AND TRADITION

Home is a feeling... which the natives want to share with you. Unaltered customs and extraordinary culture are cultivated in the Werdenfeller Land from the day that we are born it is actually already in our blood but we live it. Three cheers for all the attractions.

The people of the upper Isar valley have an aptitude for music and dance and they know how to celebrate. Therefore it is not surprising that numerous celebrations arise throughout the year which animate each and everyone to take part. Not only does the Alpenwelt Karwendel have a wide range of traditional Bavarian customs but we also offer cultural attractions. Experience colorful and magnificent processions with tradition enjoy music or the theater or just join in with the celebrations.

Experience the Alpenwelt Karwendel:

- pretty houses and front paintings
- churches and chapels worth seeing
- charming and historical pedestrian precinct
- traditional customs and the theater of the country
- proper evenings of traditional music and village evenings
- unique and historical Bozner Markt
- driving of the cattle down from the mountain pastures in autumn, farmers market, farmers week
- traditional weeks of carnival time

Holiday luck in the winter sun... Calmly, nature is sleeping at the foot of the Karwendel, peace and quiet are taking over, pleasantly infectious. Enjoy the days off together in the wintry mountains.

Breathe in the fresh air while the winter sun treats your face with her warmth. One of the nicest ways to explore the wintry landscape of the Alpenwelt Karwendel is to be snugly packed in a blanket on a horse drawn sleigh and to glide through the snow. Those of you who prefer the more active way of exploring why not put on some snow shoes and tramp through the powder snow go skiing or explore the 150 kilometer long net of the well prepared cross country ski course.

Experience the Alpenwelt Karwendel:

- an alpine ski resort for families and also a ski circus
- the legendary Dammkar – Germany's longest ski slope for free riders
- guided winter / torch / ski shoe tours
- wintry hiking trails which are cleared of snow
- biathlon for visitors and ice stick shooting for visitors
- feeding of the red deer
- romantic Christmas markets
- sleigh riding run and ice skating rink and much more
