

Rhine in Flames - Cruise with the ship „Nautilus“ July 6, 2024

(including 2-course dinner and music)
Cruise from Wiesbaden and back to Wiesbaden

Dear Guest,

Thank you for your interest in Rhine in Flames on July 6th, 2024 - The unique traditional firework event on the River Rhine in Germany.

With the following lines, we would like to inform about the event and the ship “Nautilus” (Primus Line, Frankfurt/Main). The Nautilus is largest ship in the Primus line and stands for home-style hospitality with two interior decks and 300 seats for passengers. Aboard a 2-course dinner is served (vegetarian variation possible), drinks are not included in the price. Please turn page for more information on the menu. When ordering, you should already specify if you want to order vegetarian food. Entertainment music with a DJ (hits of the 70s to the 90s). Boarding is only possible in Wiesbaden at around 7.00 p.m. The ship sails out from Wiesbaden-Biebrich towards the romantic Upper Middle Rhine Valley - UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2002. The ticket will show you the details for boarding. Please note: boarding ist only possible in Wiesbaden-Biebrich.

At about 10.15 p.m. the fireworks (6 firework places) will start. The event will end around midnight when the ships return to Rüdesheim where the final firework takes place in the middle of the Rhine River. The ship returns to Wiesbaden-Biebrich after the event (deboarding around 1.00 a.m.) Boarding time in Wiesbaden-Biebrich will be around 6.00 p.m. at pier from Primus-Linie.
